About Twisted Doctor…

Twisted-Doctor (he/it) is currently a 21 year-old game developer, working on a project named Doll Eye, with a team of friends named "Dreamsteed". He is well known for his animation memes on Youtube in the Animation Meme Community. We will refer to it as Skrill/Bones in this document, but it also uses Jeremy or Teri. His birthday is September 22nd, 2001.

This document will not discuss what happened in 2016-2017.

I (Web) was an "Official Doll Eye Discord Server" Mod (2020–2021) and former "friend" of Bones (2018-2021). One year ago I did have problems with Bones' racism, but I will not be going over this again as I've already talked about it previously. [Link]

Before the "Official Doll Eye Discord Server," there was another server made in October of 2017 named, "Mystery's Stomach." Before it disbanded in May of 2020, my group of friends and I somehow managed to get into a group chat with Bones and befriended him. This group chat was named "Triple Threatz." When we were friends with him, he would often talk about very inappropriate topics in front of us despite him being 17, and the rest of us being 13-16. The main server "Mystery's Stomach" had a NSFW channel opened to the "13+" community, which was only removed a few months before the server was closed.

In 2020, after the "Mystery's Stomach" server was abandoned, a new server named the "Official Doll Eye Discord Server" was created. During the time, he was 19-20, and his content was directed toward an audience of "15+." This server was predominantly minors, and included various instances of him acting inappropriately in front of minors.

This document believes that Bones was irresponsible and directly harmed his community of people who were younger than him, and idolized him, by encouraging the discussion of NSFW and fetishes. What was done should be addressed to prevent anything like this from happening again.

Mystery's Stomach and Triple Threatz

We had a group chat that we'd often talk in, named "Triple Threatz", created in the middle of the original server. That chat has been long deleted, along with "Mystery's Stomach."

I made a request for my Discord Data, but I found very little proof, and no messages from the server since it's been deleted a long time ago.

Our server, "Triple Threatz" used to have a Tumblr, a now ghost blog on the aforementioned website. We did post frequently on it of our funny moments in that server, but everything has since been deleted. We do have many messages of expired server links that lead to the server, though we don't have vital screenshots of the server itself. We do have proof mentioning its existence and our closeness with Bones at the time.

Inappropriate Topics around Minors

Bones has repetitively made inappropriate (sexual) “jokes” with minors. This includes discussions of fetishes such as vore and urination. While he has claimed that it is nothing more but humor, his actions and behavior say otherwise.

Official Doll Eye Discord Server

During 2020, in the “Official Doll Eye Discord Server” Skrill started to make sexual innuendos about Guy’s (Doll Eye Character) genital size just for jokes. However, since the server is 15+, he ended up making jokes in front of multiple minors while being 19 at the time. I myself, had to go to Skrill’s DM’s and tell him to not joke like that in front of minors.

Bones has made reference to Doll Eye’s antagonist, Mystery, creating holes in the walls of his hospital to perform sexual acts within the server. He has also mentioned sexual acts Mystery has done with his stuffed toy, Mago.

ALSO for who didn't see this yesterday because I deleted it since I feared it had harmful implications for transfeminine people
Today I asked on twitter and everyone seems to be alright with Mystery wearing dresses as long as I attempt to portray it respectfully so (picture of the cat doing a little thumbs up)

The content: bringing sexy back vocals with a little bit of distortion slapped on the first harsh noise song i could put my hands on because it's funny
The brain: This to me resembles the intense and confused state of mind of a manic episode brought by years on years of trauma and regrettable harmful actions an isolated man has done to himself and who surrounds him. A man who is trying to grasp to whatever physical pleasure but also physical discomfort he can attempt to bring to himself only to feel something else. It is hard to tell what it feels like - does it feel good? Does it feel horrible? He doesn't even exist who cares

Mystery's Stomach

Hello! Guten Tag, Abend, Bonjour, or whatever you want to greet me in! I'm Anon C in this document for those who are curious. I have been a massive fan of his content for many years now, about roughly half a decade (5 years). I used to support Skrill/Bones financially between the years 2018 and 2022 (but I stopped supporting them for roughly six months between December 2020 to June 2021 for personal reasons I'll not dive into for now as this isn't too related to the topic I will talk about).

I stopped supporting Twisted-Doctor and his content for good in July 2022 by quitting Patreon and leaving the new discord server because it gave me genuinely bad memories and how it deteriorated over time. And now, looking back at how he treated my friends and loved ones, who were also his supporters and friends, was terrible. I can't handle being in a community where people aren't treated right because of their background. And worse, it just kept up leading to various bizarre interactions with them, whether it was about fetishes, NSFW, or plain-up bigotry like transphobia or racism.

While I was in the 'Mystery's Stomach' server, I was in a voice call with Skrill on April 15th 2018, with a couple of others roughly around the same age as me or a year older. I was 13 in the voice call in 2018, with Skrill, who was 16 then. I asked him as a joke to draw my character getting 'vored' by his character, Mystery Burns, for which he offered roughly $20. I assume he sent me his Paypal through direct messages or in the voice call chat (But I do remember paying through Paypal), and I instead paid $1 because I didn't have enough money at the time since I was young and didn't have a part-time job. When he drew it, I was shocked, but at the time, laughed along as everyone else did in the voice call. Skrill then posted the drawing on Tumblr (which is now deleted, but I still have the picture saved) after a day of drawing it and later reblogged it on his old art archive. This can be seen here.

https://nasty-doctor.tumblr.com/post/173100102984/someone-paid-me-for-this-dont-look-at-me-like-that

But unfortunately, the image is not on Tumblr anymore (Thank God for that) since, like earlier, the post is now deleted two years after it was posted since he moved to Twitter in May 2020 and deleted all of his posts from his old Tumblr account.

I still have the drawing saved from my Phone and Computer, so here's what it was. I have blurred out my character for privacy and to stay anonymous.

I'm nearly turning 18 at the time of writing this, so deep down, I regretted making that decision the more I thought about that drawing Skrill did of one of my characters as a 'joke commission'. I was only 13 and still had a child's brain like when I was 12, as there was no difference.

Throughout the ages of 12-14 years of age, I was exposed to a questionable amount of people at a very young age through Discord, Twitter and Tumblr particularly. And not knowing that NSFW and other fetishes were very harmful and dangerous, especially for a young child to be on the internet seeing.

The more I aged, the more I felt like I should've left these fandoms sooner and not be taken advantage of for my age and my gullibility/being too trusting around others. I still have this issue to this day of being very trusting to others I don't know personally and I hope that I don't end up being with the wrong people as I reach adulthood. Anyways that's all I have to say about my experience with Skrill in the older server when I was 12-13. Anon C, Out.

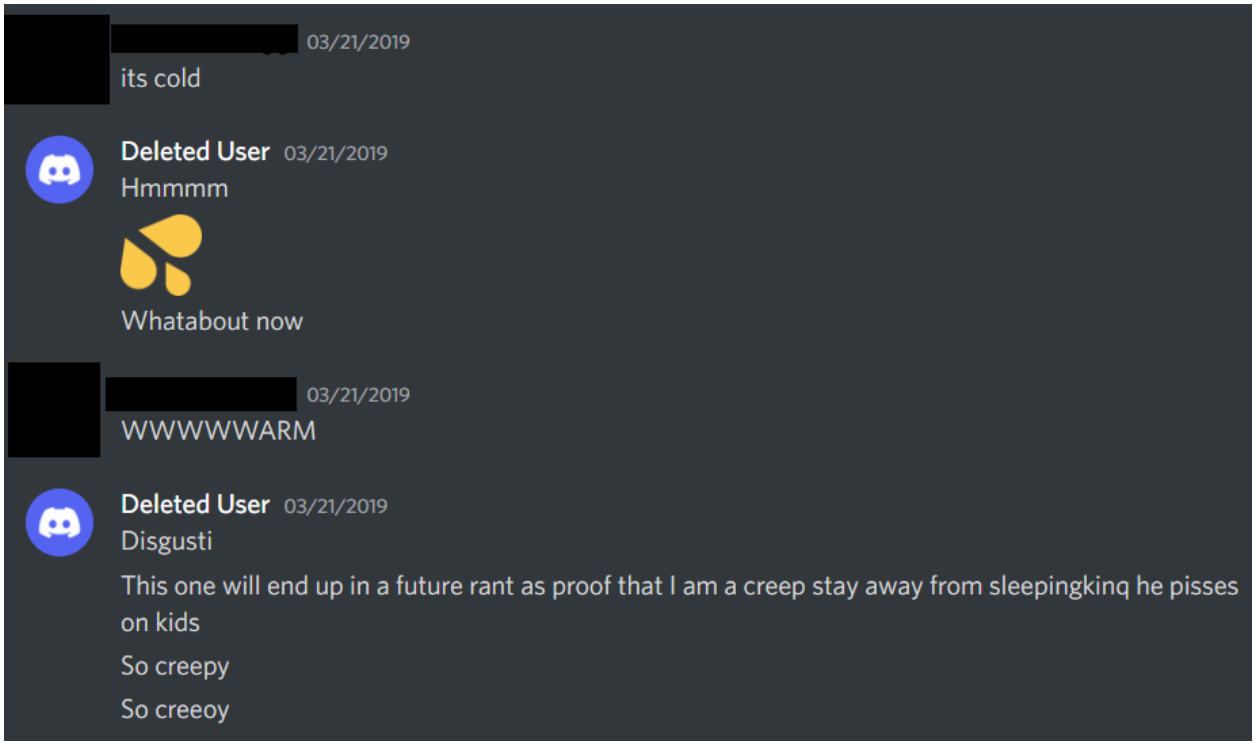
In the future, DM's may be sent to me or released when the users feel comfortable enough to post them here. When needed, the doc will be updated with screenshots.

Due to privacy reasons, this screenshot is crossed out to conceal the Anon. The Deleted User in question is Bones, this is also a DM between the User and Skrill in 2019. Said user was 13 at the time, Skrill is 17.

(I know it's hard to identify deleted users on discord to prove it's Bones, but keep in mind that his first account was deleted and he moved to another account, so you may see that.) -Web



Triple Threatz and Vore

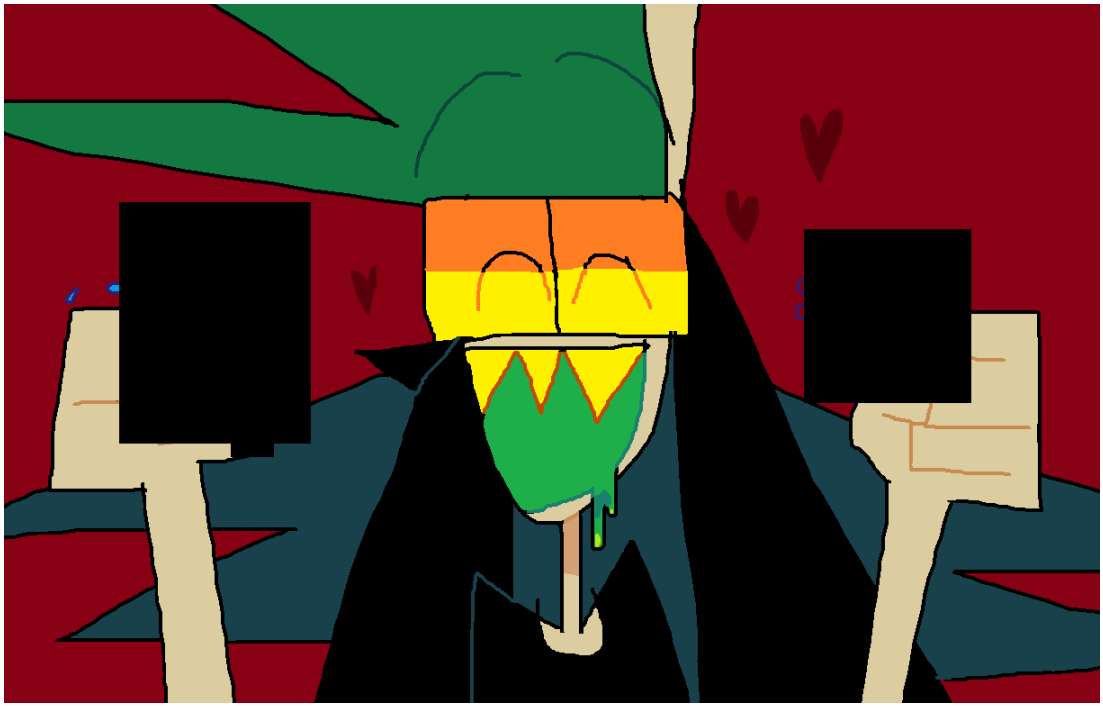
In this private server, Bones made frequent discussions of vore and other fetishes. NSFW was openly discussed, and it also contained a NFSW channel. This behavior created long lasting negative impacts on multiple of his friends, who were younger and idolized him.

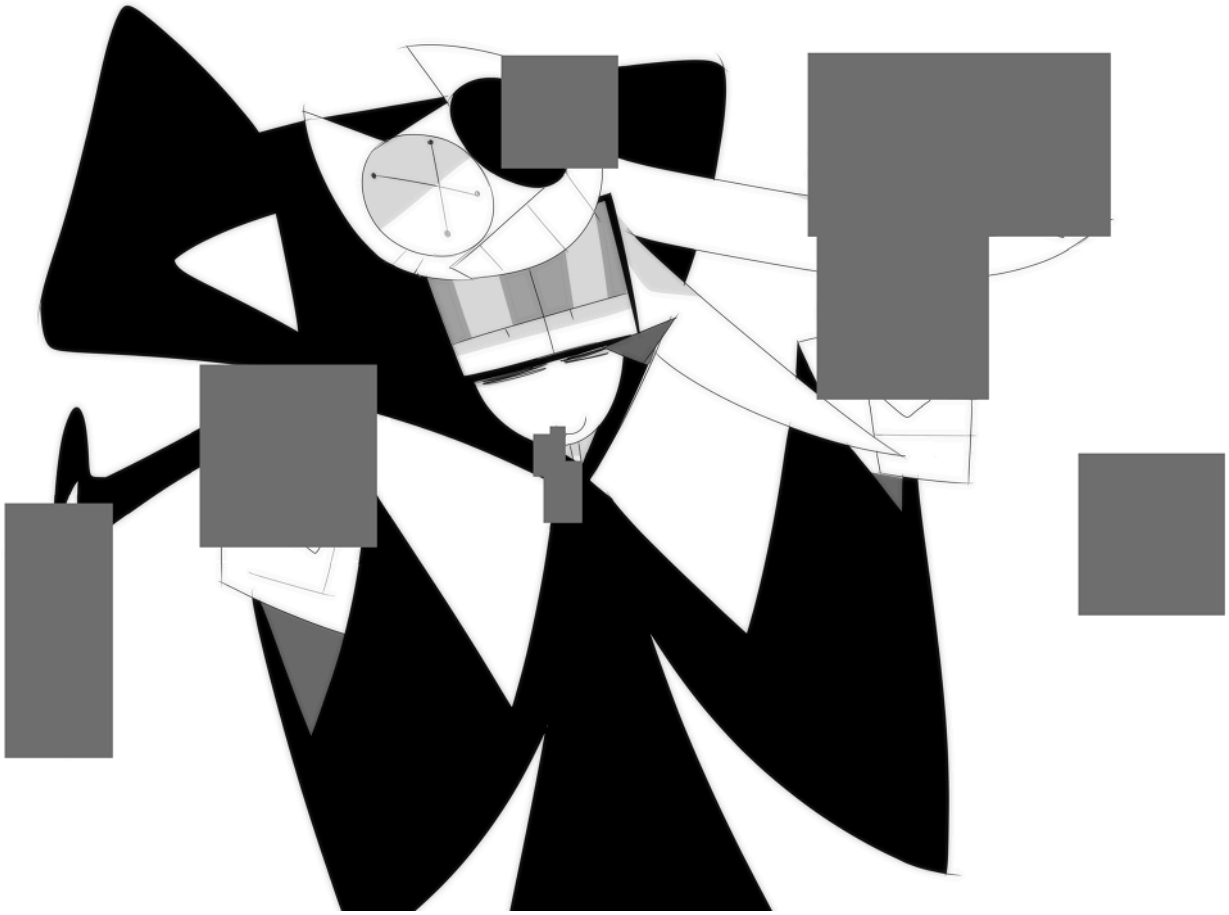
Though I actually don't have screenshots of this happening, I do still remember it happening inside of "Triple Threatz" in 2019. I remember him explicitly asking if 'Necrophilia was consensual or not', and everyone started to talk about it back then. I was off-put by him bringing that topic up to the table, shocked. I wasn't sure if it was related to his character, Mystery, but, who knows.

As well as that, I do remember him talking about vore a lot back then in the group chat, and in the private server. He ended up drawing vore of my friends a couple of times, and even talking about it, and looking back at it today, I'm still not sure if this was a joke or something he was actually into, but again, I'm not entirely sure. But the effect of Bones talking about vore also made some of my mutuals draw vore as well, especially myself.

When there was an NSFW channel present on his old server in Late 2018, I would often participate in drawing nsfw for him just to get approval from him. He didn't stop me. This was also before the 15+ rule was implemented and the new server was made, so plenty of kids under 18 saw this channel. It was not private, that channel was public.

Here are pieces of art drawn by Skrill including my friends' characters. All have been blocked out for privacy.





Hello! This is Alfred speaking, I am the owner of the old “Slimestery Burns,” or the Slimestery Tumblr blog that ran for 2 to 3 years. I am also one of his ex-beta testers from when Doll Eye Chapter 1 was still in development. I'm here to address my experiences with Skrill and how it impacted my well being. I can't really provide screenshots because It happened a long time ago and I got rid of them due to my mental health, but I'll try to sum up what happened to me.

I was once ‘mutuals' with Skrill since very late of 2017, I was around 13–14 at that time. I wasn't really that close to him at first. I was asked to be in “Triple Threatz” by someone on the server and I sort of idolized him as well, feeling excited that I was even included in the group entirely. I was pretty oblivious to most of the things that happened in that said group chat and I hoped that I could sort of fit in that group. Not a lot of things happened at the very beginning, but soon it would shift into topics or "jokes" all the time on problematic things.

At the time he usually would have favorites in the group. I wasn't really the favorite but I do remember trying to do everything I could to seem like I was cool, which was drawing a lot of questionable stuff. And it made me hate myself more than ever. That's when he would enable us to make a lot of jokes that honestly took it way too far and it wasn't ironic anymore.

I remember being the observer for the most part. I've heard Skrill say things in voice calls that he should've never tried to say, such as making one of his characters say the N word, making "jokes" trying to say the N word. And try to excuse them as "Shock Humor". I was the one who had to try and tell him that it was not okay to do something like this. Thinking that he might understand, he stopped. Some time later he would try and make an outright racist joke and try to say he didn't know that was a problem. Despite being well aware that he was friends with two people of color in the server back then.

There was also a lot of talk of NSFW, and I remember he enabled all of us to act upon ourselves to do it. He even drew a lot of NSFW as well and showed it with a form of pride. I would show this in public spaces such as on the Slimestery Tumblr page and act on other old friends. Which at the time seemed okay since I thought if skrill was doing it, so could I. Now I do heavily regret my actions and what I did at that time and I wished I never acted upon that, I was still very young and I thought it was alright to do.

I also do remember him making me a mini-mod in his very old server at the time, in “Mystery’s Stomach.” I was in charge of letting people in and out the server if needed.

I also remember being scolded for accidentally leaking a few seconds of Doll Eye chapter 1, Skrill and others in the group dogpiled me about it and I felt terrified. And some time a few months prior, I was kicked out of the group due to this all happening. So I am not that experienced in what Skrill did to me. I apologize if everything seems scattered, but I hope this is enough to clear things as well.

Hi. I'm Anon B. I used to be a member of the old Discord friend groups (triple-threatz), as well as being a huge fan of Skrill in 2017-2019. I was fairly active within his fanbase, including his Discord servers (Mystery's Stomach and the Official Doll Eye Server)

I, like everyone else, have had my own experiences similar to the others mentioned in this document. For my safety, I do not feel comfortable disclosing my past encounters with Skrill. Despite that, and despite my blurry memory, I did want to help, providing everything I could to confirm everything in this document has happened.

While I know there isn't much, and many screenshots and old chats have been lost to time, it's important and worth bringing up. We hope this is enough to back up our experiences and let our voices be heard.

If you've had similar experiences relating to Bones, feel free to DM me - Web.
